

Continuing Education Content from BizLibrary

Select BizLibrary content is available for recertification credits or certification preparation.

Continuing education (CE) credits are courses that provide professionals with the continued education to maintain their license or practice their profession. From professional development to compliance training, CE credits are required by many industries and cover a wide variety of topics.

For first-time applicants, most authorities require an exam in order to be approved for certifications. For recertification, applicants must either retake the exam or complete a certain amount of recertification credits.

Learners and admins can filter by Certification Authority to find applicable courses. BizLibrary adds new qualifying courses each month.

Recertification:

Select BizLibrary content is available for SHRM (Society of Human Resources Management) and HRCI (HR Certification Institute), and PMI (Project Management Institute) credit.
