

Welcome Your New Hire

Welcoming your new hire to the company, their position, and culture are all an important part of the onboarding process. According to Glassdoor, organizations with a strong onboarding process improve new hire retention by 82% and productivity by over 70%. By engaging your new hire from day one, you will have a reliable and productive employee for many years to come!

Welcome Video

This is a short video that introduces company culture and builds excitement. This use of media is a versatile way to welcome your new employee to the team and their environment. Include a special welcome message from an authoritative figure such as the company's CEO, hiring manager, or key staff members.

ITEMS TO INCLUDE

- 1 Introduction to team members
- 2 Office virtual tour
- 3 Mission and/or vision statement, and core values
- 4 Statement on training and development

BENEFITS

- Simple, cost effective, and reusable
- Introduces faces and names
- Alleviates first day nerves
- Shares your welcoming culture